DARE is constantly trying to help the children of this community with choices inside and outside of the classroom. DARE was awarded a Grant from International Paper to benefit children, in District 27, with clothing and shoes. DARE purchased candy for the Halloween trick-or-treaters, to show kids the fun activities available to them.

The School Resource Officers are having a busy and eventful school year so far. The School Resource Officers are eagerly learning the dynamics of the school environment this year. They are continually working on forming relationships with the students, that will help keep the students and school a safe place.

Respectfully submitted,
Paul Adams

DARE/Community Policing

DARE was awarded a Grant, from International Paper, to help kids with clothing needs. She will be distributing the fund, in the form of sweatshirts, jackets, pants, shoes and etcetera, to District 27 school children throughout the school year. DARE is designed to help children make good decisions in life. It is imperative that they have someone or something that will help them remember about those good decisions. Officer Christy Fruge awarded a student with lunch for making multiple good decisions on a continuous basis. DARE hosted a party at Northwest to celebrate the star students for the month. These are the kids that keep their grades up and stay out of trouble. DARE also purchased candy for the Halloween Trick-or-Treaters.

Lincoln K9

Officer Sullivan and K9 Ace had 9 deployments for October. The Lincoln Police Department benefits from our K-9 unit on a regular basis. Along with helping Logan County and Illinois State Police, the US Marshals have asked for our K9 Unit's assistance and benefited from its performance. The deployments this month resulted with outstanding indications, items seized and arrests. All items seized were drug or drug paraphernalia related. The drugs seized were Cannabis, Heroin and Cocaine.

School Resource for LCHS

October has proven to be a busy month for Officer Butterfield. He has been working with multiple schools and the colleges on their safety procedures. He attended a Safe School Summit and learned valuable information to help the schools in our community. The incidents he responded to this month include harassment/bullying issues, drug violations, assault/threat issues, E-cig/vape violations and class misconduct/general incidents that required parental contact. Officer Butterfield help implement a K-9 search, of LCHS, during the month of October.

School Resource for District #27

Officer Christy Fruge has been busy the month of October planning and implementing Red Ribbon Week. The Red Ribbon Pledge is to respect yourself, know the importance of being healthy and drug free and to understand the dangers of drug use and abuse. The incidents she responded to this month include social/emotional issues, general counseling issues, fighting and class misconduct issues where parental contact was needed.
